Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 12 March 2004.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

The preliminary amendment filed on 6/25/2004 has been entered. Claims 1-21 are presented for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 3-11 and 13-21 are rejected since they lack of proper antecedents for the claims.

Specifically:

Claim 3 is rejected since it lacks a proper antecedent basis for the phrase "said first, second, third and four datasets". It is noted that the proper support is found in independent claim 2.

Claim 4 is rejected since it lacks a proper antecedent basis for the phrase "said first, second, third and four datasets". It is noted that the proper support is found in independent claim 2.

Claim 5 is rejected since it lacks a proper antecedent basis for the phrase "said first, second, third and four datasets". It is noted that the proper support is found in independent claim 2.

Claim 6 is rejected since it lacks a proper antecedent basis for the phrase "said first, route and driver association are stored as links within said database". It is noted that the proper support is found in independent claim 2.

Art Unit: 2876

Claim 7 is rejected since it lacks a proper antecedent basis for the phrase "said OCR-A or OCR-B characters, said text characters or said signature is stored as a second color image". It is noted that the proper support is found in independent claim 2.

Claims 8-11 are rejected as they are dependent on claim 6.

Similarly, claims 13-21 are rejected. The proper supports are found in claim 12.

For the purposes of this Office Action, as best interpreted the claims, the examiner considers that claims 8-11 and 13-21 depend on claims 2 and 12 respectively.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,722,569 (herein after referred as "the '569 patent"). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the essentially reciting the same limitations.

Art Unit: 2876

Similar to the claimed invention, claims 36, 43, 44 and 46 together recite: the step of capturing a first color image (base claim 35), storing the first color image (claim 46), capturing a second color image (base claim 42), decoding the image (claim 36), associating, displaying and linking (claims 43, 44, and 46).

The combination of claims 36, 43, 44, and 46 includes all limitations set forth in claim 1. It would have been obvious to combine the limitations of claims 36, 43, 44, and 46 into one single because they essentially are features of the same system. As can be seen, the patent protections have been granted to the earlier filed application.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2 and 12 are allowed.

Claims 3-11 and 13-21 (as best understood the claims) would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art fails to disclose a method for managing parcel delivery comprising the steps of: capturing the first and second color images; decoding the bar code located within the first color image; attempting to locate and decode the data according to OCR-

A, OCR-B, text characters; locating and cropping a signature, and various data processing and database management steps as recited in claim 2.

The prior art also fails to disclose the limitations of claim 12.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Thien M. Le whose telephone number is (571) 272-2396. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday from 7:30am - 4:00pm.
